

I Remember You

I remember the day, we first met
I remember the way, I'd already leapt
Into your arms, your heart, just waiting to call you my own

I remember you saying how do you do?
I couldn't hear your name, cause I already knew
You'd be sweetheart, sugar, baby to me
Oh cause I remember you
Oh I, I remember you

Life can be so surprising
Turn around, suddenly love is shining
From the eyes of someone that you've just met
And you know that you've taken your first step
Together, forever

I remember the night you held me close
I remember the way, you felt like home
And all the hoping, longing, praying was through
Cause I remember you
Oh I remember you
